

I must protest against any proposals to eliminate limitations on how many media outlets a person or corporation may own in one market. If you eliminate the limitations, you limit the number of differing opinions one may encounter in the market. Please keep the current limits. Thank you.